Our newest community, Keawalau at Waipahu, is proposed for the corner of Farrington Highway and Waipahu Depot Street. If built, Keawalau will offer Waipahu residents numerous community benefits.

- ▶ By creating a vibrant community, walkable retail facilities and welcoming gathering spaces, Keawalau will improve public safety.
- ▶ Keawalau will be a renewed gathering place for the community, with over 50,000 sq. ft. of grocery, retail and restaurant offerings.
- ▶ Keawalau will create approximately 500 affordable homes for 'ohana and kūpuna.
- ▶ The proposed community will generate more than $1.9 million in new school fees to support education.
- ▶ Keawalau will be conveniently located near the Hikimoe bus station, new Pouhala Transit Station, Waipahu High School and other popular community sites.

Masks are not mandatory, though they are recommended given Hawai'i's high-risk COVID-19 Community Level. We encourage you to do what makes you feel safe. Being around other people in public poses a risk of exposure to COVID-19. By attending this event, you voluntarily assume that risk.

Please join us for a community open house to discuss this exciting new opportunity for Waipahu.
